THE SPIRIT OF THE AGE. IN PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, BY Alexander M. Gorman,

Single Subscribers, $1 50 per annum. To Uluba of 5 and upwards, $1 00 each; Payable in all cases in advance. RULES WITHOUT EXCEPTIONS. which it has been paid; and no paper sent un less the cash accompanies the order.

JOB PRINTING, of every description, NEATLY EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE.

Choice Literature.

From the New-York Organ. LAURA MAITLAND

BY MRS. BANSBURY.

CHAPTER III.

not all your sisters?'

great Creator who made all things.'

you get older you will understand these The solemn pause which followed this sad views on this all important matter.'

ring's consent to take you.'

up visions of field and forest, of murmuring a brief description.

Sabbath to worship in the church. When most restraint; and Maria, whose large sient cloud and remarked gaylyshe was prevented from feeling a sense of wealed intelligence beyond her years, and intended trip to England?" by being made a sharer in the demonstra- when it should be fully developed James, an excursion?' home the friend. As she looked up in the care of all the others, and they were all for the voyage.' thought her even more beautiful than her sweet ties of sympathy and love. mother as they had towards Isabel.

sake, who loves you so well.'

love?

soon as I saw her, but why is it so? I nevnot permit them to go abroad, Mrs. Ware and there was a slight degree of satire in the blood of the victim.

But "they stand in the blood of the victim."

But "they stand in the blood of the victim." er saw her until to-day, and I never loved and Isabel taught Laura to sew, and one day the young man's expression.

A Family Newspaper—Devoted to Comperance, Mocality, Literature, Agriculture and General Intelligence.

VOL. IV.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 4, 1853.

Laura's room-mate, and between the two fears fled away before the sweet, benevolent in the dark days which shadowed a portion er's view. girls an attachment sprung up, warm and smile that broke over his countenance as he of her after life. deep. Laura sometimes wondered at it .- met and embraced his daughter. When she When they retired to their apartment on the was introduced to his notice, he stooped and ot trust him, Laura, and believe he will do lings right?

It was destroyed their mutual devotion to the gay and thoughtless. He turned aside the gentle warnings and remonstrances of his parent, mother loved and trusted Him too. But I saving his strength of will was sufficient to mother loved and trusted Him too. But I saving his strength of will was sufficient to mother loved and trusted Him too. But I saving his strength of will was sufficient to mother loved and trusted Him too. But I saving his strength of will was sufficient to locally and trusted Him too deciminates. The saving the find delight in the company of the gay and ings betrayed their mutual devotion to the fabled Bacchus. After a rambling convergence of the palace of the found its victims alike in the palace of mother loved and trusted Him too. But I saying his strength of will was sufficient to two. addressing his companion said, never saw her pray. I never heard her talk keep him from temptation and danger. But 'You tell me, Leigh, you have spent part most sacred of all relationships.' wonder why mamma never taught me to suit of employment. For a time he made abundance.' pray, and why she is so different from every body here, and then I think she does not love me, and I almost wish she would leave me here always. Is it wrong to feel so, Bel!"

Salt of employment. For a time he made abundance.

I supposed such pleasures as you name, but to death, temporal and eternal, has shrouded by every lawful means in our power, by the selfish inclinations prompt him to relinquish place in her son. But, alas! Her found abundance.

I supposed such pleasures as you name, but to death, temporal and eternal, has shrouded by every lawful means in our power, by the selfish inclinations prompt him to relinquish forever.

I supposed such pleasures as you name, but to death, temporal and eternal, has shrouded by every lawful means in our power, by the public press, through public opinion—throfore the forever.

own mother, and when she felt herself press- Laura was admitted to a full share of the My business, you ought to know, is ed to that lady's bosom in a long and trem- pleasures and employments, the attentions merely nominal, and easily set aside,' rebling embrace, she was surprised; but her and instructions of the young members of turned Leigh laughing. home while with us. You must regard your- and feelings profitably occupied. She waich- how it seems to me that if you have enough that Mrs. Ware regarded her with a peculiar each kind by itself, in labeled parcels, and from you if you hope for profit. But this partment. interest, often with moistened eyes. She laid away to await the coming of another is no affair of mine. Does your wife accomso kind to her. Bell replied. 'Because she loves you, Laura; and do you not return her love?'

So kind to her. Bell replied. 'Because she would all trip away over the brown and national love?'

They reck not of the wide-spread ruin which church must be aroused, not to opposition, the must be a sudden whim. Do her tastes love?'

They reck not of the wide-spread ruin which church must be aroused, not to opposition, the must be a sudden whim. Do her tastes love?'

They reck not of the wide-spread ruin which church must be aroused, not to opposition, the must be a sudden whim. Do her tastes love?' *Oh, yes! I do indeed. I loved her as merry laughter. When the weather did in travel-what is your object in going?"

'Perhaps no one ever loved you so soon, on a needy child a little garment of her own pay my devoirs to a distant relative from my little observing, inquisitive friend. But making, she felt a joy never known before. whom I may, possibly, at some future day, yonder comes papa. You have not seen him No wonder Laura felt happy and at receive an additional amount of this world's yet. He has been nearly all day at the home; no wonder she was almost sad when goods. Mrs. Leigh goes, first to win the Widow Jones's whose poor intemperate son the time approached that must separate her admiration, applause or envy of 'her dear Delivered on the occasion of the Dedication of Wake was thought to be dying when he was sent from a spot round which her young affections five hundred friends;' secondly, as in duty so closely entwined themselves. Happy, un- bound to comply with the wishes of her de-Mr. Ware was a tall, spare man, with conscious child! As she took leave of her voted spouse, and humble servant, dark hair and eyes, and a pale, grave face. kind friends at the parsonage, she little 'And her little girl, where is she? She tion is assuming an earnestness and impor- of the werm that never dies) armed with the When he first entered the apartment Laura dreamed of her consanguinity to them, or of is said to be a beautiful child, but shy and tance, which entitle it to the serious and can-Isabel Ware, a lovely girl of fifteen, was felt a sort of awe of his presence, but her the greater kindness they were to render her diffident, and very unpromising in her moth- did consideration of all. It is not the work happiness of that community. For less than

CHAPTER IV.

Laura sat down and wept afresh. Bel, as she few kind words that sank deep in her mind, tablishment, not many squares from Mrs. thoughful than I cared to be, and I was as end proposed and the means by which that family! to entail upon-your daughters a life. was familiarly called, drew her little friend close to her, and, waiting until the natural land to the same and wind with the natural land to the same and wind with any attempts to family! to entail upon-your daughters a life of sight. I took cure, however, to see that the use of intoxicating liquors is the gambling house and the brothel, to make burst of feeling subsided, she said soothing- poor Robert Jones was dead. This an- gave evidence of wealth, and of a taste luxnouncement brought a sad and serious ex- urious, and not entirely removed from cox-Be comforted, my dear Laura. You have pression to each face, for they all knew the combry. Nature has been lavish of her fakind friends here, Mrs. Loring will be a deceased, and his reckless course in the down- vors to them both, but the elder one-who mother to you, as she is to us all, and are we ward road to ruin had been made the sub- seemed fairly on the shady side of thirtyject of conversation in the family. And now was pre eminently handsome. He was tall 'You are all very, very kind to me, dear the father sought to improve the occasion of and finely formed, and his thick, dark, wa-Bel. I never had a sister, but I am sure I his untimely and melancholy end, to im- vy hair was brushed back from a face and could not love one better than I love you .- press a lesson on the minds of his children. brow which denoted intellect and power. I know I shall be loved and cared for here, 'It is but a few years,' he said, 'since yet the indolent and somewhat dissatisfied yet I must weep for my mother. She is go- Robert was the pride and joy of his widow- expression he wore told of powers unemploying so far away, perhaps I shall never see ed mother, who looked to him as the comfort ed for no high aim. On the more delicate, her more, and Laura's tears flowed again. and support of her old age, and now that yet noble features of the other, sat the same The same kind Father who cares for us mother is left desolate and heart broken, re- vacant expression, while the flushed faces of cation. all will watch over her and you. Can you fusing to be comforted. Robert learned to both, as well as their locality and surroundnot trust him, Laura, and believe he will do find delight in the company of the gay and ings betrayed their mutual devotion to the thoughts, then God won't hear me; I often resolutions, he left for a distant city, in purand excellent wine, and gay company in to secure.'

me here always. Is it wrong to feel so, Bel! hopes were doomed to be crushed. A few like the present, when meeting an old all hope of social and domestic happiness, Have I colored this picture too highly?— secure their protection! make your mamma one of his dear children, agony, as he lays there with his senses for rimonial life. Come, Herbert, you have now am sorry to believe you have acted from alized its truth?

they were more purely happy, because less associate, and set him to moralizing for my But they are gone, and 'let them go.'

without risk ?"

woods, which were made to ring with their lead her to seek such pleasures as are found her mother finds pleasure. Her innocence itself, it is due alike to its enemies and to its right to grant-a license to invade your libnight of the day Mrs. Leigh made her visit, kissed her smooth round cheek, saying a In a private apartment of a drinking es- and purity sometimes made me more friends, that we should fully understand the

No one never talked to me about the beantiful things we see go abroad, but I always loved them, and I love them more now that I hear people speak to them, and of the great Creator who made all things.'

In one never talked to me about the beantiful things we see go abroad, but I always loved them, and I love them more now that I hear people speak to them, and of the great Creator who made all things.'

In one never talked to me about the beantiful the summer making excursions to some of the summer making excursions.

In one of the summer making excursions to some of the summer making excursions to s then he became a common drunkard. But seat. Been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning, and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning and embittered the was been to those places before, and over as many pairs of eyes, blue, black, or habiliments of mourning and embittered the was been to those places before as the company of the expense of the company of the You can pray for your mother, and I he possessed a generous, sensitive nature, and they have lost much of the charm and novhope you do, that she also may love God and his works.'

I do, dear Bel, but I have strange thoughts sometimes, and, may be, they are wicked thoughts, then God won't hear me: I often thoughts, then God won't hear me: I often the god won't hear me in his sober moments his remorse and shame the god won't hear me in his sober moments his remorse and shame the god won't hear me in his sober moments his remorse and hear me in his sober moments his remorse and hear me in his sober much of the charm and now they are god won't hear me in his sober moments his remorse and how me in his sobility of other days. There's not much difficulty of other days. The god won't hear mu cravings of his better nature to an ignoble of social intercourse enjoyed, without the adtions of joy and affection on the part of the little band who gathered around to welcome boy of four years, little band who gathered around to welcome little band who gathered around to welcome was the youngest, and the darling pet and ready nearly completed my arrangements ted to him no worthy objects pursued, no in self-interest, or avarice. Two hundred mended by our adversaries, so warmly prespure and substantial pleasures secured, and thousand citizens of the United States are sed by timid friends. eall his dormant energies into action.

To be Continued.

these things are possible; but never hope dust, every grain of which is stained with carried forward to a speedy and certain acto make the sex forego the heart worship, or give up their reverence for cassimers; for while the terrible denunciation of "wo to of its friends, do I this day appeal! I appeal missions of love and charity, and bestowed elty and change; last, though not least, to Greek Slave, and as hollow as a bamboo. | lips," and the experience of thousands who collections of the past, by all your bopes for

Original Papers.

Address by S. W. Whiting, Esq.

Forest Division Hall, April 2, 1853.

now, and has been for centuries, the fruitful 'Yes; and she is happy. I hope. I know of fact, the most prejudiced mind would starcation.'

Why really, Leigh, you are not, after all, as destitute of right feelings as your careless and triffing remarks, would sometimes.

The destroyer have been too deep to deviate the remarks which is fraught with their own temporal and eternal interests, under the plea that they are authorized and profound its victims alike in the palace of the less and triffing remarks, would sometimes.

'I do not know, but papa says our feelings weeks ago her cherished son was brought will be right towards any one we pray for home to her, wrecked in body and mind. Secondly: We are to arouse the people of the State to a proper sense of the evils of the State to a proper sense of the evils of the substance that will, though encumbered with latively, in one form or the other—nearer or liquor traffic—to convince the method to be discussed in body and mind.

Another difficulty in the way, is to be found quiver is moral stussion, so earnestly com-lower has declared by solemn enactment, public blessing and convenience, and shall ave one, provided a suitable person can be found to keep it. It is an evil from which NO. 34. there is no escape. You may escape from famine or the pestilence-you may fly from the malaria of your swamps to anuff the pure breezes of the mountains or woo the gales that come from the billows of old oceanbut from the pestilential curse of the grogshop, there is no escape, but in the silence and solitude of the forest or the desert .-Wherever a civilized community is gathered. wherever the spire of a church points to hea-The occasion which calls us together this ven, or the busy hum of industry promises day, is connected with a subject of most mo- competence and contentment, there creeps mentous interest. The temperance reforma- the "worm of the still" (that fittest emblem 's view.'

'She is a sweet flower, all heart and soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

of yesterday, nor, if successful, can the present stand soul.

It is not the work the first pieces of silver, the citizen is betrayed by the Government! A license to sell are dent spirits, is a license to do wrong!—a liand would droop in the atmosphere in which has given birth. It is due then, to this cause cense which no Government on earth has any he was placed in a home congenial to her prove that the use of intoxicating liquors is the gambling house and the brothel, to make life a burden, death a terror and eternity a 'Then she has been sent away to school?' source of untold crime and misery. Were hell—and, as if to add insult to injury, this you called to sit as judges upon this question of this unholy alliance, is set apart in solemn mockery she will be kindly cared for until such time the at the appalling array of witnesses which for the purposes of education! With one we are ready to recall her. But I have would rise up on every side-your own ex- hand our beneficent protector deals out a pithid from her mother as far as possible, the perience, and the experience of genera. tance to rain your children to virtue and fact that Laura will be surrounded by puritions gone before you, would furnish conclusive and unimpeachable testimony—the laws upon your statute book, the records of your troyed. It is an axiom that, the law sanctions nothing which is morally wrong, feeling a real interest in the girl, I cannot taphs that crowd your grave-yards, would give and thus many who are otherwise good citibear to have her mind warped to the silly mute but fearful evidence of the truth. The zens and worthy men, satisfy themselves to notions instilled at too many places of edu- traces of the destroyer have been too deep to continue a business which is fraught with have got sefore them, proclaiming in thun-der tones, but the traffic is accused of God and man, seem to fail alike to arrest or res-train them. To while we wonder at their infatuation, let us ass to the consideration of the third and last ficulty I shall mention, and which may afford me partial palliation for their apparently inexcusable course. It is that the sale of intoxicating havers is not is that the sale of intoxicating liquors is not only legalized, but sanctioned and approved by the laws of the State. The law-making of God and of another life, as you do here. those who boast the loudest of their own of the summer making excursions to some of the summer making excursions to some extinguished the fire of another life, as you do here. We have been part to the summer making excursions to some extinguished the fire of another life, as you do here. We have been part of the summer making excursions to some extinguished the fire of another life, as you do here. The summer making excursions to some extinguished the fire of another life, as you do here. The summer making excursions to some extinguished the fire of another life, as you do here. The summer making excursions to some extinguished the fire of another life, as you do here. fold. It has reduced man to a level with the this, it has failed to answer the purpose for 'You mean in other words, that when a brute-dethroned reason, stifled conscience, which it was instituted. It then becomes will be right towards any one we pray for sincerely, so, you must ask the great God to and now she weeps over him in her great have the benefit of your experience in matand then if you have wrong thoughts and wishes, they will go away, I think. When you get older you will understand these your nature craves nobler enjoyments than ble such a consummation, it is not to be dis- with, a power that cannot be restrained, an things better. Now let us trik of something to ask you. Will you not go home with me and spend the variation? I have my parents' and Mrs. Location? I have my parents' and Mrs. Location? I have my parents' and Mrs. Location and the solid manner of 'We saw no ray of reason, through all queuce which a full pocket only can keep is dreadful disease, sufficient to guide us to un; therefore to seeme these inestimable lessons were received.' Herbert Leigh re-Oh! have you! Then you know, I'll his dreadful disease, sufficient to guide us to up; therefore, to secure these inestimable lessons were received, Herbert Leigh redeclared to be necessary, by a large portion our morals and disgraced our character as a go, and Laura threw her arms around her friend, with a face radiant as the sunshine that breaks through the clouds after a storm. Isabel smiled and said she was not conferring.

Isabel smiled to be necessary, by a large portion declared to be necessary, by a large portion. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. But turned in a sarcastic tone. After a brief of our population. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. But turned in a sarcastic tone. After a brief of our population. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of his mind. It has found advocates a knowledge of the state of In the fervent prayers which that night a favor, but asking one.

'But you have such a sweet, pleasant home, and a dear kind papa and mamma, and little sisters and brothers too. Oh, I shall be so happy to go.'

In the fervent prayers which that night asking one asking the fair pecuniary speculation you different views of life, and life's the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression bring to you different views of life, and life's the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the fair pecuniary speculation you different views of life, and life's enjoyments. Even now you do not despise the fair pecuniary speculation of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the law, for the suppression of the gay, and cheered the fair pecuniary speculation of the gay, and cheered the dejection of the gay, and cheered the gratification of the gay, and theorems which procure the gratification of the gay, and theorems which procure the gratification of the gay, and theorems when the gay, and theorems which procure the gratification of the gay, and theorems which procure the gratification of the gay, and theorems when the gay and theorems which procure the gratification of the gay, and theorems when the gay and theorems when the gay and mitigated the sufference in the gay shall be so happy to go.'

With childrent interest and curiosity, Laura asked many questions, which Bel delighted to answer, about her dear home and thus the to answer, about her dear home and thus the to answer, about her dear home and thus the total courted ner for her weath alone.

'Mrs. Leigh is in no way barred from been found the universal panacea for "all the includence of her whims and tastes.—

She sows and reaps as her fancy and her to the infant inst waking been arrest the drunkard in his downward even arrest the drunkard in his downward. to answer, about her dear home, and thus the children such scenes as this, that they might continued, with affected indifference, the into life instead of the nector from that great and sentimentality. We are an, ne continued and sentimentality. We are an an are sentimentality. We are an are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality. We are an are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality. We are an are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality. We are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality. We are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality. We are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentimentality are sentiment young friends talked pleasantly and cheerfully until the hour came for them to seek their rest; then a few impressive words from Isabel subdued the excitement of her companies as this, that they might ambition direct, therefore your pity is uninto life, instead of the nectar from that gushinto life, instead of the nectar from that gushinton life, i Isabel subdued the excitement of her companion, and recalled the wandering thoughts of both. In a few minutes they were kneeling, each in her respective place, and their pure aspira ions and earnest petitions went up pure aspira ions and earnest petitions went up to the throne on high.

The same the sources of the use of the distribution of the line of the grow and their pure aspira ions and earnest petitions went up to the throne on high.

The wishes them to know and happiness are such as flow from the indulation of the grow and their pure aspira ions and earnest petitions went up to the throne on high.

The wishes them to know and the grow of the grow and their pure aspira ions and earnest petitions went up to the throne on high.

The wishes them to know and the grow of the distribution of the grow of the stand price in a philosophical manner to our fate. It may be that dame Nature formed me capathold their pure aspiration of the grow of the grow of the grow of the strength as an evidence of the fearfully perventage in a philosophical manner to our fate. It may be that dame Nature formed me capathold the grow of th ing step, and lighten the gloom that gathers and private property are only entitled to promer term was ended. Vacation! How many young, warm hearts beat wildly to the music of that word! It is almost synenymous with of that word! It is almost synonymous with land did indeed feel herself at home. As home. To the student, weary with unraysome of the members will come forward along with this shallow current but I have home. To the student, weary with unrav- some of the members will come forward along with this shallow current, but I have care! You have thrown an unwelcome spell solemn rites with which we commit earth —as effectually and justly as the lottery deaelling the intricacies of dull science, it calls again in the course of our story, let me give a heart still, and if ever I sacrifice my celi- around me to-night. Let's fill our glasses. to earth, dust to dust, and ashes to ash- ler, the gambler or the counterfeiter! In all bacy, it will be in the confident hope of find- and drink to a light heart and a heavy purse.' es, would have been deemed, in many parts christian communities, public good, public or sounding ocean, with all the mighty and beautiful works of Nature.

It was a beautiful morning in October, that soft, hazy month, so dear to contemplative minds, that our happy Laura found a trifle wayward, but never guilty of the smallest fault that was by the side of gentle Isabel in the plain pear.

A brief description.

The parents and Isabel, the first born, have been deemed, in many parts of our country, wanting in a proper respect ing something deeper and more satisfactory than the empty vanities I have pursued.

The parents and Isabel, the first born, have been deemed, in many parts of our country, wanting in a proper respect ing something deeper and more satisfactory than the empty vanities I have pursued.

The parents and Isabel, the first born, have been introduced to the reader. Richard is thirteen, a noble, generous boy, high-spirited and a trifle wayward, but never rebellious, not drown my present thoughts in the subtile ship of Bacchus. Such a wide spread and private considerations, nay, good for the limit of our country, wanting in a proper respect to the morals, are far above all personal and private considerations, nay, good for the limit of our country, wanting in a proper respect than the empty vanities I have pursued.

'You'll have to begin your reformation pretty soon then, Ned, for though you will fall using a proper respect than the empty vanities I have pursued.

'You'll have to begin your reformation pretty soon then, Ned, for though you will fall that have the country wanting in a proper respect to the morals, are far above all personal and trifle way and the dead, had they not been introduced to the reader. Richard is than the empty vanities I have pursued.

'You'll have to be in the connection, or our country, wanting in a proper respect to the word with a general invitation to the word with a by the side of gentle Isabel in the plain near not quickly atoned for. Next is Anna, just in time, and then you will find that habit which I desire to keep in view as landmarks heart, and fostered by fashion, avarice and ready to admit, that not only is such a law heart, and fostered by fashion, avarice and ready to admit, that not only is such a law heart, and fostered by fashion, avarice and ready to admit, that not only is such a law heart, and fostered by fashion, avarice and lust, it clings with a tenacity that can only not desirable, but that it would be unproductively account to guide me in my future course. A pleasant drive of two hours brought them the lily of the valley, with a smile and a kind better nature, or even your judgment.'

The two friends parted in very different be broken by slow and painful degrees. Even tive of any good, until demanded in earnest to the pretty village of B ---. Near the word ever on her lip, and with her hands ev- As Herbert Leigh thus replied, despite moods, the one to call up a wholeseme and here, however, the friends of Temperance and resistless tones by the voice of enlightencentre of the village, by the side of a handsome church, stood the neat and commodious ness. Then there was Lucy, with her sparkthe tone of love or work of usefulthe tone of indifference in which he spoke, beneficial review of his past career, the other tive observer cannot fail to see, that in this ness. Then there was Lucy, with her sparkto drown memory and reflection in new the tone of indifference in which he spoke, beneficial review of his past career, the other
tive observer cannot fail to see, that in this
to drown memory and reflection in new
the tone of indifference in which he spoke, beneficial review of his past career, the other
tive observer cannot fail to see, that in this
to drown memory and reflection in new
the tone of indifference in which he spoke, beneficial review of his past career, the other
to drown memory and reflection in new
to drown memory and reflection in house of Mr. Ware, Bel's father, and the ling eyes and flowing ringlets, the wildest features, showing that he too, still had a plans of excitement. The past course of spiritual guide of the flock who met each and marriest of them all and the constitutions and the line of the flock who met each and marriest of them all and the constitutions as a shadow lingered for a brief moment on his to drown memory and reflection in new features, showing that he too, still had a plans of excitement. The past course of decided and healthy change. Already the sentiment approves and supports such a law; spiritual guide of the flock who met each and merriest of them all, and the one needing heart; but he quickly chased away the tran- both had been much the same, but the one, coils of the serpent are loosing, and the tor- that law will be enforced and respected. To with energies still free, looked to the future tured limbs of the victim, beginning to recov- foster and strengthen such a public sentiment, Laura entered this abode of love and peace, thoughtful oros and expressive features re- By the way. Ned, have you heard of my with hope, and with a resolution to redeem er strength and vitality. There are now and to prepare for the realization of our the misspent years of his life; the other had many houses in the land, where the hospital- brightest hopes, is the high mission of the regret or sadness from her own lonely state, promised a character earnest and efficient, 'No! Is it possible you meditate such bartered honor for gold, and sacrificed the lities of life and dispensed, and the pleasures Sons of Temperance. To effect this glorious bartered honor for gold, and sacrificed the lities of life and dispensed, and the pleasures bartered honor for gold, and sacrificed the lities of life and dispensed, and the pleasures bartered honor for gold, and sacrificed the lities of life and dispensed honor for gold.

mild, sweet, loving face of Mrs. Ware, she bound together as one great heart, in the 'And your business, can you leave that he saw no motive in the joyless future to engaged in the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors! Two hundred thousand men themselves to the work. Prejudices are to be whose, interest it is to waste the property overcome, objections are to be answered, difand destroy the lives of their fellow men- ficulties to be removed, the weak are to be under every name that can please the ear- strengthened, the wandering to be brought Knowledge may slumber in the memory, with every color that can attract the eye, with back, the weary to be stimulated to fresh exwarm affection went out at once towards the the family, and she saw much in the house 'Well.' the other replied, 'I ought to but it never dies; it is like the dormouse in every flavor that can stimulate the corrupt ertions, and every where, at all times, and hold and in the quiet village, that served to have been wiser in my judgment, if appear the ivved tower, that s'eeps while the winter and jaded appetite—poisoned with drugs and by all means, the truth is to be set forth in Laura, my dear child, you must feel at awaken her curiosity and keep her thoughts ances are to be taken for a guide, but some- lasts, but awakes with the breath of spring. drugged with poisons—in rivers from the distillery and rills from the groggery-they are must be enlisted in the work. where your self as one of my own children. You are ed, for the first time, the process of milking means to support all these expenses, it Every married man should let his wife pouring forth, day and night, a stream of li-temperance paper has hundreds of subscrivery dear to me, I love you for-for Isabel's and making butter, and of making bread would require a considerable portion of your have the management of the Home Depart- quid fire, carrying death and destruction o- bers, it must have the management of the Home Departsake, who loves you so well.'

Such expressions greeted Laura on her argirls to gather from the garden and flower ival, and through all that day she noticed is a solution of the different bureaus, but don't let are deaf alike to the voice of reason of any lower that you have invested certain sums in a trol of the different bureaus, but don't let are deaf alike to the voice of reason of any lower that you have invested certain sums in a trol of the different bureaus, but don't let are deaf alike to the voice of reason of any lower that you have invested certain sums in a trol of the different bureaus, but don't let are deaf alike to the voice of reason of any lower that you have invested certain sums in a trol of the different bureaus, but don't let are deaf alike to the voice of reason of any lower than the contained by the particular of the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained by custom, protected by law, they shall be a solution of the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the contained the little time to take care of it; besides it is known ment, and give her, as Secretary, the conta rival, and through all that day she noticed vard the seeds which they neatly put up, business that ought to receive some attention her have anything to do with the War De- treaty. The tears of the widow are unheed- and alarm. It is the cause of humanity, it ed, the prayers of the orphan cannot move is the cause of virtue, and the minister who them, and even the whisperings of a goaded would be faithful to the cause of his Master, Love is as natural to a woman as fragrance conscience are silenced by the question of a must proclaim the teaching of the Word of any one else, except you Bel, so soon after a when she accompanied them on one of their 'I go.' said Herbert, 'first to seek nov-